At a meeting of the members of the American Institute, held on the 5th day of October, 1843, Gen. Tall-madge, presiding. On motion of Mr. Wakeman,

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to prepare a resolution expressive of the feelings of the members of the Institute, on the occasion of the decease of Col. Clarkson Crolius, a member of the Institute. The Committee reported the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted : Resolved, That the members of this Institute will attend the funeral of our departed associate, who has been one of its earliest and most faithful friends; and that this resolution be communicated to his surviving relations, with the assurance that the deceased is held in respectful remembrance by the Institute, as an eminently useful, honest and upright man, both in private and public life.

We are requested to state that the New-York and Erie Railroad Boat will leave foot of Duane-street hereafter at 7 o'clock A. M., and 3 P. M.

for Gen. Tom Thumb is at the American Museum, and thousands go to see him. The performances are above all praise. The artists are all of high repute, and present the best attractions in the city.

CASPER HAUSER, the Fudges Mermaid, Southern Minstrels, with grand performances every night, are all to be seen for one shilling at Peale's Museum.

Sebrio's Cordial.—To attempt to raise the reputation of this well known medicine for the cure of Dyspepsia, and the variety of Nervous Diseases, Headache, Sea Sickness, Loss of Appetite, &c., by bringing forward testimony from individuals, may appear to some like a similar effort to prove Shakspeare a poet, Washington a patriot, or Henry Clay a wise statesman and lover of his country. Yet the cases are not parallel: for there is so much imposition practised in the present age to 'raise the wind,' in the shape of cure-alls, that ir requires, be the article ever so good, the assertion of a respensible person that it is not of the humbug description, to give the doubting public confidence in it. With this view, we give the following excellent recommendation:
Copy of a letter from Col. F. H. Elmore, ex-Member of Congress, and actual President of the Bank of the State of South Carolina, dated CHARLESTON, July 18, 1843. Mr. C. C. Sebring: Dear Sir-It gives me pleasure to reply to your inquiries concerning your Restorative Cordial.

I have used it for more than a year in my family, and have found it an efficacious and useful medicine. In averting and relieving nervous and dyspeptic headache, it has proved very serviceable, and in complaints among my children they have experienced much benefit from it.

Several of my friends, to whose use I had recommended it, have testified strongly to the benefits experienced from it.

SANDS'S SARSAPARILLA .- This preparation is a combination heretofore unknown in the history of medicine, differing en-tirely in its character and operations from the various prevaria-tions of Sarsaparilla which have been at different times of fered to the public. It acts specifically upon the whole system, thereby bringing it under its universal and controlling effects, yet it is entirely harmless, so that it cannot injure the most delicate constitution. It has been thoroughly tested in numerous instances, both in health and in disease. When in perfect health and in disease. ictims along the path of life, then its mysterious influence is elt and seen; it enkindles new life and vigor, and brings health ad strength back to the suffering and diseased. and strength back to the suffering and diseased.

For conclusive evidence of its superior value and efficacy, see certificates published in this and other city papers.

CHOLERA MORBUS.—During the intense heat of summer' often the process of digestion is completed; our food becomes spoiled, or putrified in the stomach; hence bad breath, sour belchings, costiveness, pain in the stomach, colic, dysentery, cholera morbus, and other dangerous symptoms.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are certain to remove all the above unpleasant complaints; because they cleanse the stomach and bowels of those putrid humors which are the cause not only of all the diseases of the bowels, but every malady incidental to man.

and not only incidental to man.

Four or five of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, take night on going to bed, will, in a short time, completely rid the body of every description of suffering, at the same time the digestive organs will be restored to a healthy tone, and the

The Invisible Wig so closely resembles the real head of hair that sceptics and connoisseurs have pronounced it the most perfect and extraordinary invention of the day. The great advantage of this novel and unique Wig is its being made without sewing or weaving, which causes its ap-pearances so closely to resemble the natural hair, both in lightperiances so closely to resemble the natural hair, both in increase and natural appearance, as to defy detection, its texture being so beautiful, so porcus and so free, that in all cases of cerspiration evaporation is unimpeded, and the great evils of other Wigs entirely avoided. The sceptic and councisseur are alike invited to inspect this novel and beautiful Wig, and the eculiar method of fitting the head, at the manufacturer's, A. Bremen in the American ship Hudson at this port. On landing he was taken to the Passage Association, (the protectors of the immigrant!) who persuaded, or rather forced him to engage passage with them. He was persuaded by a runner mamed John Mills to pay him $20, for which he received a receipt for $12 only. The undersigned not be able to understand the English language, and not being up to the tricks practised by these runners, on arriving in the city he called upon Mr. William Souther and Mr. Nicholas Waeity, who informed him of the deception which had been practised on him. They accompanied him to the office of the Passage Association, where they took this honorable (!) receipt-writer (Mills) to task, who replied that he had made a mistake—that he should have given plied that he had made a mistake—that he should have given him a receipt for $5.50 more, and kept $1. What is the community to think of the Cashier of a Company (formed for the protection of immigrants) who receives $20 from a poor immigrant and gives a receipt for only $12?

The moral is easily seen.

L. M. STEVENS. New-York, September 12, 1843.

Extract of a letter from Mr. Luther Jackson, a distinguished teacher of writing:

"The great desideratum of fineness, elasticity and strength you have in a great degree attained, and were schools or individuals once to give your pens a fair trial, I apprehend they would hardly be induced to use any other."

Extract of a letter from Mr. B. H. Rand, teacher and author of various works on Penmanship:

"Since the introduction of Steel Pens I have tried almost every variety but with comparatively little satisfaction, 'till & met with yours, which I think very superior to any thus far tested by me; I can hardly suppose the imported article will be much sought for when yours become known."
